

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,)
)
Plaintiff,)	8:05CR55
)
vs.)	REPORT AND
)
ALICIA LOPEZ,)	RECOMMENDATION
Defendant.)

On June 7, 2005, defendant Alicia Lopez (Lopez), together with her counsel, Ernest H. Addison, Jr., appeared before the undersigned magistrate judge. Chandler Thompson, a certified interpreter in the Spanish language, served as the interpreter by remote telephone hook-up. Lopez was advised of the charges, the penalties and the right to appear before a United States District Judge. After orally consenting to proceed before a magistrate judge, Lopez entered a plea of guilty to Count I of the Indictment.

After being sworn, Lopez was orally examined by the undersigned magistrate judge in open court as required by Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 11. Lopez also was given the advice required by that Rule. Finally, Lopez was given a full opportunity to address the court and ask questions.

Counsel for the government and counsel for Lopez were given the opportunity to suggest additional questions by the court. Moreover, both counsel orally certified that they were of the opinion that the plea was knowing, intelligent and voluntary, and that there was a factual basis for Lopez's plea of guilty to Count I of the Indictment.

Therefore, I find and conclude that: (1) the plea of Guilty to Count I of the Indictment is knowing, intelligent, and voluntary; (2) there is a factual basis for the plea; (3) the provisions of Rule 11 and any other provisions of the law governing the submission of guilty pleas have been complied with; (4) a petition to enter a plea of guilty, on a form approved by the court, was completed by Lopez, Lopez's counsel and counsel for the government, and such petition was placed in the court file (Filing No. 21); (5) the plea agreement is in writing and is filed in the court file (Filing No. 22); (6) there were no agreements or stipulations other than those contained in the written plea agreement.

IT IS RECOMMENDED TO JUDGE LAURIE SMITH CAMP that:

1. She accept the guilty plea and find the defendant, Alicia Lopez guilty of the crime set forth in Count I of the Indictment to which Lopez tendered a guilty plea;
2. She accept the written plea agreement attached to the petition to enter a plea of guilty with the understanding the court is not bound by the stipulation, but may with the aid of the presentence report, determine the facts relevant to sentencing.

ADMONITION

Pursuant to NECrimR 57.3 any objection to this Report and Recommendation shall be filed with the Clerk of the Court within ten (10) days after being served with a copy of this Report and Recommendation. Failure to timely object may constitute a waiver of any such objection. The brief in support of any objection shall be filed at the time of filing such objection. Failure to file a brief in support of any objection may be deemed an abandonment of the objection.

DATED this 7th day of June, 2005.
